OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT:— Petition of M/s J. K. Lakshmi Narasimha Rao,

LAST REFERENCE.

Letter No. dated

form

In the above petition M/s Lakshmi Narasimha Rao states that the late M/s J. Narapati Rao, Judge of the Chief Court of Mysore improved old Temple of Sunkenhalli Kumaraswami to the South-West of Basavangudi Extension at a cost of nearly Rs and that Chikkaiah

the deceased gentleman has directed that the building should be made available to all those "who admire the natural Scenery & commands and devotees who come to worship the deity and for marriages and Upanayanams &c."

"and further that the management of the temple must rest with him (petitioner) or any nominees from any member of his family."

In addition to improving temple at a heavy cost, the late Mr. Hara Rao, it is stated the petition, instituted cial worship on tain important itive occasions in the ar and presented to the temple "Ayabharana" and "Paraphernalia nce therein. A care-taker on Rs 7 a month looks after the temple and the

"Tulasivana" nearby
of "tope" raised on the private lands of the deceased gentleman
round the temple, is,
as directed by him
thrown open to the public for pic-nic and Dhabithavana parties

The petitioner says that, as the temple is a mutrai Institution enjoying Inam lands from Govt, he does not know how to act
in accordance with the wishes of his father.
He therefore prays
that he may be [illegible]

Dharmadarsi of the temple to manage its affairs and that the Govt may be pleased to recognise always a member of his family
as a Dharmadarsi of the temple. And that Govt may also be pleased to grant to the temple a monthly cash Grant of Rs 15 to meet the cost of worship and the pay of the gardener
and watchman, in consideration of the fact that his father
spent a large sum of money for restoring the temple and that the institution is now largely resorted to by the public.

From the revised Quit rent Register of the Bangalore Taluk (p. 18) it is observed that the temple ~~above~~ referred to by Mr Lakshmi Narasimha Rao in his petition is endowed with Inam lands as noted in the margin

Mr. Narahari Rao has spent a large sum of money (Rs 8000) in improving this temple. There are no funds however to give a cash grant of Rs 15 every month, but the temple has Inam lands assessed at Rs 78-10 a and there is no fear of the daily pooja coming to a stop. In consideration

Muzrai Secretary's remarks;-

The temple in question is an old Muzrai institution situated very near the Bangalore City which was renovated recently at much cost by the late Mr. Justice Narahari Rao. After that gentleman's death his son Mr. Laksminarasimha Rao applied to Government for a cash grant to help in conducting [illegible]

File No. of 190 | Muzrai Secretariat.

Sir P. N. Krishnamoorti was pleased to record on page 6 of this note that the institution richly deserved a cash grant, but subsequently on the 26th March 1906, when the papers were submitted to him with a recommendation to grant ₹15 per mensem as a cash Tasdik to it he was pleased to order that no fresh grant could be given for this institution.

The institution is used to some extent by the Brahmin public of Bangalore and considering that new grants of ₹15,17, and 20 have recently been sanctioned in favour of the institutions named in the margin all situated in Bangalore City I venture to submit that a new grant of ₹15 per mensem, or at least of ₹10 per mensem, from the State Funds will not be out of place.

I do not know whether it is possible, in view of Contemplated retrenchments in public expenditure, to multiply these Cash grants Liberal Cash endowments have been made for the new temples in the City. The temple which the late Mr Narahari Rao inspired at great cost, is situated, away from Bangalore and is now valued as a resort for picnic or other entertainments than as a place of worship If money is available, by all means the Cash grant recommended may be sanctioned

MUZRAI SECRETARIAT

Bangalore Fort
23d August 1903.

To,

L. Anantasami Row Esqre B.A.,
Deputy Secretary to Government
Muzrai Department.

Sir,

The Government, Revenue, are aware that my father, the late lamented Mr T. Narasimha Retnia Mudr, Chief Court Vakil, Bangalore, repaired the old Sivalaya on the Kumaraswami Betta near Sunkenahalli Village, Bangalore (to the South West of the Basavangudi Extension by rebuilding the temple in Stone and Mortar and adding Spacious Sheds of Stone on either side with out houses Cook-room or otherwise improving the Premises at an average cost of Rs 8000/-.

2. In this behalf I beg to state that the building should be used as a Hall for "who admire the Natural Beauty in Commands and Secretaries of State to worship the deity" and "performing Upanayanam &c". He has further stated that the management must rest with me "or his (my) nominees from among members of his family".

3. Having thus improved the Temple, he instituted Special Worship on Certain important festive occasions in the year and presented "Abharanas" and other paraphernalia' Service therein. He also appointed taken on Rs 7/- per mensem and the Ornamental Carving &c the temple against damages and also to plant a Tulsi garden at the place and also to look after raising a "Tope" on private land round the temple which he has also directed to be known open to the public for pre-hic and Dhatribhavana purposes.

4. As the temple enjoys income land from Government, which however is enjoyed at present by the Pujari &c a Hereditary institution and I desire to know or to act in accordance with the wishes of my departed father. May therefore that I may be appointed sole

Dharmadarsi Swami of the Upper of the temple and that the Government may be pleased to recognize a member of my family always as one of the Dharmadarsis.

5. In order to meet the cost of Worship &c in the temple and the pay of the Watchmen and gardener, a sum of Rs 15/- a least per month is required and in Consideration of the fact that my father spent such a large sum on the temple,
May that the Government of His Highness the Maharaja may be pleased to sanction a monthly cash grant of Rs 15/- from State funds as long as the temple which is now largely resorted to by the Public.

Sir,

With reference to your No.2275 of the 17th Ultimo, I have the honor to state that the amount mentioned in the statement referred to represents the accumulated savings up to 30th June 1900 of the institutions which were not found in the Current Ready money register.

The fact of their not being included in the Register led this office to infer that the institutions must have been resumed and the balance was accordingly stated to be available for the part adjustment of certain items of Gross Expenditure. The information as to what annual Recurring Grant these institutions enjoyed is not available in this office and I would request that reference on the point may be made to the Superintendent of Inam Settlement, Mysore.

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to submit the following for the gracious consideration of Government.

(a) That my father, the late Mr.Justice T.Narahari Rao renovated at great cost a temple situated on a hill near Sankenahalli now popularly known as "Mount Joy".

Office note, Submitted. AV 12/5/06

(b) That in his will he directed that the eldest male representative should look after the temple and the grounds (3 acres-19 guntas) which he bought at the foot of the hill and which he directed should be allowed to be used by the Public fo Pic-nic parties (Dhatrihavana) &c.,

(c) That he had instituted special worship on Sivarathri and during all the days of the Dassara which are being carried out year after year without interruption.

The Government on my application were pleased to appoi me-the eldest male representative- As sole Dharmadarsi of th Institution, and to my prayer for the resumption of the Inam of the temple by Government I was referred to the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District, while my request for a cash grant of Rs.15/- was rejected after having given me help 2 years. Vide No.4340 dated 30th March '06.

I submit that without instituting daily worship the objects of the institution is much minimised, and that without proper al help I am not in a position to bring about the desired ob The building itself and the grounds attached require a caretaker, and as the grant of the Inam is for perpetual archak will also have to be paid something in addition to conduct the daily ritual.

4. I therefore humbly solicit that Government will be graciously pleased to reconsider their decision, and grant me the requisite help, so that, the building built at such great cost (nearly 6,000/-) may be saved from decay, and the purpose of the institution as well as the wishes of my deceased father may be duly carried out.

5. I beg that you will kindly be pleased to recommend my case to Government and obtain their orders.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient and humble servant
